Consider Dayton Elementary School as your teaching adventure.

Nestled in a rural community somewhat equi-distant between Polson and Kalispell, this K-6 school warms the hearts and minds of approximately 70 students. Students are nurtured by five certified teachers, individualized education specialists, a nurse, an admin assistant and a teaching principal. The Dayton Elementary School focus is educating the whole child while improving student academic performance through student engagement, team planning, data review, and systematic intervention. Parent participation is the nugget of Dayton School. No task is too big for them. They prepare one hot lunch each month for kids and teachers; they engage fund raisers to help support the school; and volunteer to help kids grow. As a school community, we take pride in growing healthy children.
