

Student Teachers/Interns

The Dayton Public School recognizes its obligation to assist in the development of members of the teaching profession. The District shall make an effort to cooperate with accredited institutions of higher learning in the education of student teachers and other professionals in training (such as interns) by providing a reasonable number of classroom and other real-life situations each year.

The District and the respective training institutions shall enter into mutually satisfactory agreements whereby the rules, regulations and guidelines of the practical experiences shall be established.

The Principal shall coordinate all requests from cooperating institutions for placement so that excessive concentrations of student teachers and interns shall be avoided. As a general rule:

- (2) A supervising professional shall be assigned no more than one student teacher/intern per school year;

- (4) The student teacher shall assume the same conditions of employment as a regular teacher with regards to meeting the health examination requirements, length of school day, staff meetings and in-service training.
